

Community Guidelines for Comments and Visitor Posts on PiCCA Facebook Page

PiCCA posts information about its program of activities and on topics directly relevant to its vision and goals. PiCCA supports positive and constructive interpersonal and intercultural communication and welcomes comments and posts on its Facebook Page.

PiCCA expects all such comments and posts to be respectful of persons and cultures.

PiCCA expects users not to post any content that is, or could be deemed to be:

- insulting, abusive, defamatory or obscene;
- fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading;
- in violation of another's intellectual property rights;
- in violation of any law or regulation;
- offensive to people's identities and cultures.

With regard to visitor posts, PiCCA will review any suggested posts for relevance to PiCCA's vision and program and reserves the right not to publish posts for any reason. It also reserves the right to delete any posts.

With regard to comments on posts, PiCCA reserves the right to delete any content that falls into the categories listed above or is deemed otherwise offensive, irrelevant or unhelpful to supporting positive and respectful communication.
